98 98.1	Community Engagement Kate Waterworth had met with Help and Squaddie who were doing work re enhance Health and Wellbeing. She was due to meet with YMCA in order to try and get young people involved in a youth council. A meeting would also be set up with Sue from Brereton Millions for advice. It was important that the youth should steer the council with Cllr Mahon and Kate Waterworth acting to support and advise only. 98.2 Kate Waterworth and Cllr Mahon had met with Kevin Yates from CCDC re Elmore Park and Green Lane development. 98.3 Cllrs supported the idea of increasing pressure on CCDC to get the voice of Rugeley heard in local projects such as parks development.
99 99.1	Charter Fair The work involved around the organisation of Charter Fair was discussed. It was agreed that Cllrs D Hancock, I Hodgson and P Ansell would meet with the Town Clerk on Tuesday 19th February to discuss the next steps. 99.2 The possibility of having a casual helper in to the council offices to support on the Charter Fair was discussed. It was proposed that a person be appointed on a casual temporary basis for approx 3 -4 hours per week to help organise the fair. Funding for this would come from the Community Engagement Committee budget. Proposed: Cllr Hodgson; Seconded: Cllr Grocott. It was agreed that funding be found to pay for a casual temporary appointment for 3 – 4 hours a week to support the work associated with the Charter Fair.
100. 100.1	Date of Next Meeting The next meeting of the Community Engagement Committee will be Wednesday 13th March at 7.30pm.
